Chaplain's Message

THE HIDDEN PERSON OF THE HEART

1 PETER 3: 3-4 Let not yours be the external adorning with interweaving and knotting of hair, the wearing of jewelry, or changes of clothes.

But let it be the inward adorning and beauty of the hidden person of the heart. With the incorruptible and unfading charm of hidden person of the heart. With the incorruptible and unfading charm of a gentle and peaceful spirit, which is very precious in the sight of GOD.

When we interact with others, we should endeavor to know who they really are, in their hearts, and not make hasty judgments against them or judge them according to their appearance. When we do not endeavor to know the "hidden man of the heart", we make a mistake in one of two ways: (1) we approve of someone because they appear to be something they are not, (2) we disapprove of someone because of some outward appearance or action, when the individual is actually a wonderful person on the inside.

What we sow into the lives of other people, we surely will reap in our own. If we sow harsh, hasty judgments, we will in turn reap harsh, hasty judgments. So, when the temptation to judge or criticize is at our door, resist it. Instead, do your best to look for the best in others and see what GOD values about each one" the hidden man of the Heart".

Our secret thoughts and attitudes should be godly. We may hide from other people what is going on inside of us, but we cannot hide anything from GOD. Our outer man is our reputation with people, but "the hidden man of the heart" is our reputation with GOD.

We should be much more concerned about our reputation in "heaven" than our Reputation on earth.

GOD'S PEACE, LOVE and BLESSING'S

The Korean War

On June 25, 1950, the Korean War began when some 75,000 soldiers from the North Korean People's Army poured across the 38th parallel, the boundary between the Soviet-backed Democratic People's Republic of Korea to the north and the pro-Western Republic of Korea to the south. This invasion was the first military action of the Cold War. By July, American troops had entered the war on South Korea's behalf. As far as American officials were concerned, it was a war against the forces of international communism itself. After some early back-and-forth across the 38th parallel, the fighting stalled and casualties mounted with nothing to show for them. Meanwhile, American officials worked anxiously to fashion some sort of armistice with the North Koreans. The alternative, they feared, would be a wider war with Russia and China—or even, as some warned, World War III. Finally, in July 1953, the Korean War came to an end. In all, some 5 million soldiers and civilians lost their lives during the war. The Korean peninsula is still divided today.
